

Does your relative have a learning disability?

Is your relative 0-18?

Do you live in the Black Country?

Is your relative's behaviour putting them or others at risk?

WE WANT TO HEAR YOUR VIEWS

We are holding a family carer focus group on Friday 3rd December
Via Zoom
10am -2.30pm

Aims

To find out more about the support available in the Black Country and to share your views and suggestions for improvement.

To meet other families experiencing similar issues.

To develop some ideas for change in the Black Country.

Take part in the focus group

If you live in the Black Country and your relative is aged 0-18, has a learning disability and displays behaviour described as challenging, please sign up below.
