

The 'All About You' series

- Are you a Young Person with SEND and considering education, training or employment?
- Are you in need of more information on how you will be supported as a Young Person with SEND?
- Are you a Parent supporting your child with SEND to find out about the support they will receive with their Post 16 choice?

If the answer is Yes, then this session is for you.

As part of The 'All About You' series hosted by Dudley SENDIASS via MS Teams this session will bring together professionals from training providers and employment support who work with Young People to talk about how they can support their SEND Post-16.

Wednesday 9th February 2022 10am – 11.30am
Training Providers & Employment Support

Staff will be explaining:

- how a young person with SEND can access a supported internship?
- how a training provider and employer support a young person with SEND through a supported internship to an apprenticeship?
- during their training, what is available to prepare young people for employment once they have their qualifications?
- how does the Job Centre plus and Disability Employment Advisers support young people with SEND?

During each session there will be an opportunity to ask the panel questions.
