

The 'All About You' series

- Are you a Young Person with SEND and considering education, training or employment?
- Are you in need of more information on how you will be supported as a Young Person with SEND?
- Are you a Parent supporting your child with SEND to find out about the support they will receive with their Post 16 choice?

If the answer is Yes, then this session is for you.

As part of The 'All About You' series hosted by Dudley SENDIASS via MS Teams this session will bring together professionals from a range of services who work with Young People to talk about how they can support their SEND Post-16.

Wednesday 29th June 2022 10am – 11.30am
Community Inclusion and Independent Living

Staff will be explaining:

- how the service supports a young person with SEND to become equipped with the skills to be an independent adult and to be part of the community?
- how young people with SEND access the service?

During each session there will be an opportunity to ask the panel questions.
