Practical help and support

Our experienced and approachable staff can help you with:

Safety planning; benefits; debts; housing options; schools & nurseries; signposting to other agencies; advocacy with other agencies; GP/health visitor/ midwife appointments; changing addresses/ name; help to look at your legal and other options; life skills; children's issues

What previous residents say about the refuge?

"You have helped to change my life, and that of my daughter, forever"

"I'm not sure where I would be without you"

"You helped me when I needed you most, and made me realise we have got choices in life, and that we do deserve to be happy".

It's not your fault –

You did not ask for or deserve the abuse

Can you help us?

Domestic Abuse is everybody's business, and there are so many ways that you can assist CHADD to continue its work supporting women, children and men to be free from abuse:

Make a donation

Fundraise - raising not only vital funds but help to raise awareness;

Volunteer - Offering your time is very rewarding for everyone;

Donate gifts in kind – assisting with the 'welcome/starter' packs, clothing etc.

Whatever you decide to do, even the smallest changes can make the biggest difference. To find out more, ring our head office 01384 456465.

Thank you
