Digital Skills

Free taster course for beginners

This is a course for those with little or no computer experience. Increase your confidence using a computer and learn basic skills such as using the keyboard, sending and receiving emails and staying safe online.

The course will help you develop skills which will enable you to progress to the next level digital skills course.

Call ACL on 01384 818143 for more information and to book

Dudley
Metropolitan Borough Council